12 It seems necessary that Govt should reserve the power to do such acts of charity in deserving cases when hardship is apparent. May for consideration whether the boys may not be educated free whether in the College classes alone cases of this kind cannot be included except on clearest necessity shown, as is one of the first rules that claims of pardons cannot be recognised but all the same Govt can come out and help in deserving cases and such acts are common even under the present Indian Regime.

These papers relate to an application from the widow of the late Mr C Krishna Rao, Amildar of Nelamangala Taluk, praying for the grant of suitable scholarships to her sons

(2) Mr Krishna Rao was an Amildar of the Firs class and had put in a service of 36 years of which about 13 years in the Topographical Survey Department and 23 years in Mysore He died on the 15th September 1910 of enteric caught at Sivaganga where he worked in connection with the Sarada Pratista ceremony and has left behind him 4 sons and one daughter besides a widow - all in destitute circumstances (a condition of comparative poverty as Mr Chandy has put it in his letter No 340 dated 6th October 1910)

(3) The eldest is aged 24 years and has applied for an appointment His request has been commended to the Deputy Commissioner Bangalore District

(4) Of the others the second boy, Murti Rao, aged 19 years, is a student in the VIth Form of the Government High School, Tumkur, the third C Raghavendra Rao aged 14 years and the fourth C Gururaja aged 5 years are reading in the I Form and Infant class, respectively of the Government Anglo-Vernacular School, Lallesvaram Bangalore

(5) Considering the pitiable condition of the family, the Inspector General of Education recommends that the boys may be given free education up to the age of 21 in Government schools with scholarships of Rs 5 each in addition in the Anglo-Vernacular classes and Rs 10 in higher classes with effect from 1st July 1911

Paper under dis'cssal

(6) The Second Councillor has noted as follows -

Government of India

(9) The papers having come before me with the opinic of the Financial Department I noted as follows -

Page 5 of Order - "The standard by which such hard cases is to be judge 'has always appeared to me to be the limit of pension whic "the deceased would have drawn for 3 or 5 years if he had lived to enjoy such a pension This does not appear to be excessive "

(10) The case was thereupon dealt with as one falling under para 8 of the Government order of 6th May 1907 and forwarded to the Financial Secretary for further representations if any

Page 5 of Notes - (11) The Financial Secretary has stated that he adheres as a matter of principle to his note of 29th June adverted to in para 8 above

(12) The case is submitted for His Highness' orders The deceased's sons have no right to the concession recommended which is entirely a compassionate allowance suggested by the circumstances of the case
